STUDENT TALENT AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

The next time you have to add to your staffing why not thinking about using a student. At StudentSleuths we aim to attract students eager to gain employment either as a summer job or part-time help during the year while they attend school. Best of all StudentSleuths is free for both students and employers to use.

Think about a directory of highly energized, enthusiastic students right at your fingertips. Search based on job roles that closely match what your seeking, ensure your prospective candidates have the skill sets necessary to succeed in the role that you are searching for. Review resume details all on-line at the convenience of your computer.

JOB POSTINGS

Can't find the ideal person in our database? Then you can post a job posting right on StudentSleuths for free for a three month listing. Compare that to the cost of most newspapers and major job websites as well as the effectiveness of a sign in the window.

As part of our initiative to attract students to StudentSleuths, students can search our website for jobs in their area free of charge. Our goal is to help them connect with you.

EMPLOYER REGISTRATION

To begin finding that right candidate for that position that you are looking to hire for, you are required to register with StudentSleuths.

Registration is completely free and will provide you with your own area on StudentSleuths to keep track of any job postings that you may do.

Registration is required to search our database helping ensure that only employers serious about hiring a student are using our service.

Simply click on the Employer button on the menu bar at StudentSleuths.com. Select registration and enter all pertinent details. When your interested in searching for a candidate, select the Search button on the menu bar, enter your username and password, select your required criteria and begin your search. If you need to update your information in the future or just want to access your job postings simply select the Log-In button found in the Employers section of the website.
